We are more than a "church". We are a community that believes in the Seven Principles which are grounded in the humanistic teachings of the world's religions.

- 1. The inherent worth and dignity of every person.
- 2. Justice, equity and compassion in human relations.
- 3. Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregation.
- 4. A free and responsible search for meaning and truth.
- 5. The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregation and in society at large.
- 6. The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all.
- 7. Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Welcome to All

SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE - Nancy Hallock

Our ongoing projects are:

- * Pure Water for the World
- * Donations to the food pantry @ Divine Mercy
- * Collect winter accessories for Lioness of Hasting
- * Red Cross Blood Drive
- * Adopt-a-highway 3x/year

We are coordinating with UUC for future fundraisers.

MARKETING COMMITTEE - Arny Stieber.

In the continuing effort to attract attention to 1st U and our Principals, we are developing a double message T-shirt that, hopefully, will generate dialogue with the viewer. Our web address will also be featured. Many people are unfamiliar with UUs and don't know that we exist. If we want our congregation to grow, each of us needs to be an ambassador and promoter. We will be taking order soon!

MAINTENANCE COMMITTEE – Arny Stieber.

The Committee has been doing the following:

- * Found a lawn maintenance company that offered their service at no cost.
- * Negotiating with the parking lot owner to reduce or, ideally, eliminate our $1,300.00/year fee.
- * Negotiating with the new Agway building owners to provide them with contractual access to the road between the two buildings and possibly parking space on their side of our property.
- * Reviewing old records and deeds re. building ownership.

Without Sophia Lyon Fahs, UU religious education would not be what it is today. Fahs revolutionized the way traditional religious education was taught, making complex theological concepts and history more accessible and exciting for a younger audience through storytelling, painting, and other forms of creativity and self-expression. Fahs wrote 40 books and served as editor of Children's Materials for the American Unitarian Association. Living to the age of 102, Fahs never ceased in her quest for knowledge and innovation.

SOUL MATTERS THEME for June

THE PATH of DELIGHT

Because the road turns long and lonely sometimes, I built this box of delight. I picked up the lid and into it I put...

My children laughing, together.

The look of giddy disbelief on my mother's face when that black -capped chickadee swooped in and landed next to her knee, waking her up from her Alzheimer daze.

The bitter bite of rhubarb pie smothered by a spoonful of half-melted vanilla ice cream.

Roahl Dahl or Neil Gaiman's books read at bedtime. Kick ball.

Deep dish pizza. The smell of a tangerine. French press.

The bite of a perfectly made croissant, proving that decadence sometimes purifies the soul.

An artichoke, with no limits on the butter.

Mix-tapes made with tunes from the eighties.

Sweatshirts worn faithfully for 20 years, their holes a reminder that to be used up is a gift.

The first fall tree to boldly burn red while its lessbrave siblings stay safely green.

No, scratch that.

Instead let's put in having a loved one save you some black raspberries.

Your partner's face after finally snorkeling in the waters of St. John.

My 6 year-old daughter writing "I love you Mom and Dad" on our car seat in permanent marker

The feeling of getting warm after being cold.
And the knowledge that all this will be gone, but is not gone yet.

That's what's in my box...
I wonder what you'll put in yours.
